Now Your 1 Plumber Gives You a Better Way to Save for a Rainy Day. Especially when it Happens to Rain Indoors.

Frankly, we're not sure when or why people first starting saving for a rainy day, but whatever its origin, it's a bit of Americana that's here to stay.

We all know what it means: setting aside money for any unexpected and unwelcome contingencies. Sound advice, to be sure.

Now, Your 1 Plumber offers you a little "rainy day" preparation of our own. Except in our case, the expression is really quite appropriate.

You see, by purchasing one of our new pre-paid service vouchers now, you'll have the money you need should a messy plumbing problem occur down the road. Things like:

- Leaking pipes
- Water in your basement
- A backed-up sewer or drain line
- A leak in your water heater
- And so on.

By clicking here, you can purchase one or more Your 1 Plumber pre-paid service vouchers at savings up to 50%:

- $100 voucher for just $50
- $175 voucher for just $100
- $300 voucher for just $200

Green & Healthy Living Tips

Dial up Your D. Strive for three servings of calcium-rich and vitamin D-rich foods a day to strengthen bones as well as speed weight loss. These nutrients often occur together in foods – especially dairy – like lowfat milk and yogurt.

Another Hot Idea from Your 1 Plumber

In most families, water heaters seem to get more of a workout in the fall vs. summer. We're not really sure why. Somehow, it just seems to work out that way. Which makes now a great time for a water heater inspection by the plumbing professionals at Your 1 Plumber.

Our inspection covers all performance and safety operations, including the potential for gas and CO (carbon monoxide) leaks. With an average lifespan of only 10-12 years, your water heater will run better, last longer, and consume less energy with annual preventative maintenance.

Contact Your 1 Plumber today and pay just $89 for our water heater inspection service with the coupon on page 3 of this newsletter. We look forward to our next opportunity to serve you.
